PREFACE

October, 1991

Dear Readers:

Several years ago I began my research on the Flynt line and went back to the records of Richard Flynt, Jr. (1720-1791). In 1980 my sister Betty Ruth Martin of Laurel, Mississippi accompanied me on a trip to the National D.A.R. Building in Washington D.C. Here we found that the war record of Richard Flynt, Jr. was approved by the National Daughters of the American Revolution Society. We found that Ann Fountain Flynt, our ancestor, was Richard's second wife.

Recently I have subscribed to "News & Echoes" a newsletter for Flynt and associated families. It is a superb newsletter both interesting and informative. It is edited and published by Dorothy C. Flynt, 2270 Overton Road, Augusta, Georgia, 30904. From this newsletter I have learned of our early Flynt ancestors.

Also I have had a lot of help from my sister Betty Ruth Martin.

I have listed some descendants of Richard Flynt, Jr. (1720-1791) starting on page 14. Look on page 59 for more ancestors.

GRANDFATHER SKETCHES

Richard Flynt (1720-1791)

Richard Flynt, Jr. was born 1720 in Lancaster Co., Virginia and died in Stokes Co., North Carolina in 1791. On his tombstone in Rural Hall in Stokes Co., N.C. was engraved the death date of 1791. His parents were Richard Flynt, Sr. (1680s-1752) and Elizabeth Reeves.

Richard and his father of the same name served as county surveyor of roads in the area of Beaverdam and the old courthouse many times, as early as Feb. 3, 1734 (father) and as late as Aug. 4, 1761 (son).

Richard Flynt, Jr. was of age by September 1742 when his father gave him a slave named Jemmy in his own right and (with brother John) others in trust for their minor brother David and sister Mary Ellen. Later his father's will gave him a slave Judea and another named Harry at the widow's death.

Richard Flynt, Jr. married first Ann Perry of Cople Parish, Westmoreland County. The date was shortly before September 29, 1747. They had three children. He married second time Ann Fountain (1745-1796) and they had eight children.

On Feb. 21, 1764 Richard mortgaged slaves named Harry, Jemmy, Boatswain and Judah.

Richard Flynt joined his brother John in Culpeper Co., Va. where on May 14, 1767 he and his brother-in-law Roderick Perry witnessed a deed. (Dorman, Culpeper County Deeds, volume 4, 1765-1769, p. 45.)

The family of Richard Flynt lived during the Revolutionary War in Culpeper Co., Va. Richard Flynt, a patriot, provided as a waggoner in the state militia for Culpeper Co., Va. for 135 days. He also furnished one horse. The horse was 4 feet, 7 in. high, well made, 8 or 9 years old. The horse died in service which was proved to the court, 15 pounds --- shillings. (Culpeper Co., Va. Rev. classes 1781, class no. 99. Public Sen. claims, Booklet 1, p. 44 & 45, Booklet 2, p. 7.)

Two or three of Richard's oldest sons fought in the Revolutionary War. Our ancestor David Flynt was too young to fight.

In the personal property tax list for 1782, Culpeper Co., Va. Richard held six slaves: Juder, Grace, Mima, Charles, Tab and Jacob, all but one of whom remained in his possession at his death.

He last appeared in the Culpeper tax list in 1785; moved to Surry Co., N. C. and was taxed there in 1786. The family lived in that part of Surry County that later became Stokes Co. and in 1849 became Forsyth County.

In the 1790 census of Stokes Co., N. C. for Richard Flynt, Jr. were: 2 males 16 up, 0 males under 16, 4 females, 7 slaves. Richard would be 70 years of age. David was the only son at home. There were three daughters. Catherine and Elizabeth remained single. Catherine died in Giles Co., Tenn. and Elizabeth died in Monroe Co., Miss. The third daughter was probably Mary who married Caleb Hill in 1797.

In 1791 Richard Flynt died at the age of 71. He was buried in the Fountain Flynt Cemetery, Rural Hall, Stokes Co., N. C.

The Estate Papers of Richard Flynt were found in the State Department of Archives and History, Raleigh, North Carolina.

The inventory of the estate of Richard Flynt was taken Nov. 30, 1792 in Stokes Co., N. C. John Flynt and Thomas Flynt were administrators. The property sold at public auction and totaled eight hundred, seventy-seven pounds, six shillings and four pences.

On Dec. 7, 1796 this amount was divided among his ten children or their spouses: William Flynt, Roderick Flynt, Betty Flynt, David Flynt, Mary Flynt, Daniel Evans, Joseph Cox, Caty Flynt, John Flynt and Thomas Flynt.

In 1963 the Fountain Flynt Cemetery was deteriorated and a number of the markers were broken and were almost illegible. Richard Flynt's wife's name was engraved "Ann Fountain Flynt" but dates were broken. Names and dates for Richard, his son William and William's wife were partly readable.

The North Carolina Highway Department needed this cemetery land to join two highways. The Highway Commission had an agreement with Vernon Flynt whose land adjoined the cemetery to move the graves to his land. They put the remains of about 18 graves into two coffins and into two vaults to move to the new location. All original stones, fragments of stone were reinterred with the other remains.

Some descendants of persons buried there used documents to verify some names and dates on the graves. This information was put on two large markers to go in this new cemetery.

DAVID FLYNT (c 1773-1848)

David Flynt, son of Richard Flynt, Jr. and Ann Fountain, was born in Culpeper Co., Virginia about 1773 and died in Monroe County, Mississippi in 1848.

In 1792 he was listed as one of the children in his father Richard Flynt's estate papers. At that time he was living at home in Stokes Co., N.C.

David married Mary C. Davis in Stokes County on Jan. 2, 1795. Mary was the daughter of John and Sarah Davis. David bought 300 acres of land on Blews Creek, Stokes County on Oct. 9, 1795. (Deed Book 2, page 203, Stokes Co., N.C.)

David Flynt's first child John was born May 24, 1798 in Stokes Co. On March 4, 1800 John Ranch sold to David Flynt 132 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres on Beaver Dam. (Deed Book 3, page 278, Stokes County.)

His daughter Joanna was born 1802 in Stokes County. David Flynt sold on Oct. 5, 1803 to Zachariah Lyon 300 acres which he bought from Henry Hampton. (Deed Book 5, page 82, Stokes Co., N.C.)

His third child Nancy was born 1804 in Stokes County. On March 4, 1805 David Flynt was appointed guardian to Robert and Mary Davis, his nephew and niece. He was one of three administrators for his father-in-law, John Davis' estate.

His fourth child Sallie was born in 1806 in Stokes County. By 1809 David, his family and some relatives, had moved from Stokes Co., N.C. to Giles Co., Tenn.

His fifth child David, Jr. was born 1810 in Giles County. His sixth child William was born Mar. 1, 1813 in Giles County.

In 1814 David Flynt and his brother-in-law Caleb Hill were appointed a "jury to flow the post of Little Tomhigh Road" in Giles County, Tenn. In March and June 1814 David Flynt and Caleb Hill were jurors.

According to the 1820 census record of Giles County, there were six children in David's household--John, Joanna, Nancy, Sallie, David, and William.

David and family moved to Monroe County, Miss. by 1830 and the 1830 census record listed four children. John had married Susan Wilson Oct. 1, 1821 and Joanna had married Thomas Hill about 1823.

David Flynt, Sr. was one of the original purchasers of land in the Choctaw Indian District, Monroe Co., Miss. during the years 1833 and 1835.

In the 1840 census record of Monroe Co., Miss. for David Flynt, the list was:

1 m	20 - 30	(William ? age 27)
1 m	70 - 80	(David, age 67, father)
1 f	under 5	(young granddaughter)
1 f	20 - 30	(Elizabeth Manley Flynt ?)

Slaves

2 m	10 - 24
1 f	10 - 24
1 f	36 - 55
1 f	55 - 100

David and his wife Mary are in the wrong age bracket. The numbers should be 60 - 70.

William Flynt, the youngest son of David Flynt, Sr. married Feb. 1, 1838 to Elizabeth Manley. This could be William, his wife Elizabeth and young daughter living with his parents David Flynt, Sr. and Mary Davis Flynt.

David died 1848 and was buried in Greenbrier Cemetery, Monroe Co., Miss.

The appraisal of the estate of David Flynt, Sr. was made Jan. 6, 1849, the total of its contents being $1,185.87½. (Recorded in Deed Book 5, pages 221 and 222, Monroe Co., Miss.)

John Flynt received his share--$300.00 on May 2, 1849.

The Probate Court April 10, 1851 gave the report of William Flynt, administrator of David Flynt, recorded in Monroe Co., Miss. Courthouse, Book 7, page 57, no. 379. More information on his estate was given by Jan. 31, 1853:

There seems to have been some hard feelings in carrying out the terms of the estate since documents were filed four years later.

David Flynt, Jr. was deceased several years before his father David Flynt, Sr. died. David, Jr.'s children are listed in this document as, "Franklin, John, Thomas and one other child, name unknown and all minors, supposed to reside in Covington Co., Miss." The unknown child was Mary Adeline Flynt.

DAVID FLYNT, JR. (1810-1840/44)

David Flynt, Jr. was born to David Flynt, Sr. and Mary C. Davis in 1810 in Giles Co., Tenn. He moved with his family to Monroe Co., Miss. by 1830.

His aunt, Joanna Flynt, who married Thomas Hill probably in Giles Co., Tenn. was in Monroe Co., Miss., Covington Co., Miss. and Jones Co., Miss. with the David Flynt relatives.

David married Mary Ann Bailey in either Monroe County or Covington County, Mississippi about 1832. His first child was born in 1833.

He was in the 1840 census record for Covington Co., Miss. with his wife Mary Ann, his three sons, Franklin, John, Thomas and his one daughter Mary Adeline.

David died between the time of the 1840 census and the time his wife remarried in 1844.

Mary Ann Bailey Flynt married Joshua Keys on July 22, 1844 in Monroe Co., Miss. Mary must have taken her Flynt children to Monroe County where their grandparents lived. Joshua Keys was in Covington County in the 1840 census living alone. He then went to Monroe County to marry Mary Ann and they returned to Covington County.

See the children and former wife of David Flynt, Jr. in the Joshua Keys household:

THOMAS NEWTON FLYNT (1838-1907)

Thomas Newton Flynt was born to David Flynt, Jr. and Mary Ann Bailey in 1838. His parents were listed in the 1840 census for Covington County, Mississippi. Before that time his parents lived in Monroe County, Mississippi.

Thomas's father David Flynt, Jr. died after the 1840 census of Covington Co., Miss. and before his mother Mary Ann married Joshua Keys July 22, 1844 in Monroe Co., Miss. Mary Ann must have taken her Flynt children to Monroe County where their grandparents lived. Joshua Keys was in Covington County in the 1840 census living alone. He then went to Monroe County to marry Mary Ann and they returned to Covington County.

Thomas and brothers Franklin and John and sister Adeline were living with their mother, their step-father, Joshua Keys, and three young Keys children in the 1850 census for Covington County.

Tabitha Keys	1	f			Miss.
Franklin Mc Flint	16	m			Miss.
John Flint	14	m			Miss.
Thomas Flint	12	m			Miss.
Mary Ann Flint	10	f			Miss.

Mary Ann Flint should be Mary Adeline Flynt.

In the 1840 census of Covington Co., David Flynt, Jr. listed the place of birth for him and Mary Ann as Tennessee. Here Joshua Keys lists Mary Ann's birthplace as North Carolina.

After they reached adulthood, Franklin, Thomas and Mary Adeline Flynt settled in Jones County, Miss. John Flynt remained in Covington Co., Miss.

Thomas Flynt married about 1856 in Jones Co., Miss. Martha Ellen Pennel (Pinion). (The early records give Pennel; the latter ones give Pinion.) His brother Franklin Mac Flynt married second time Elizabeth Pennel (Pinion). That meant two brothers married two sisters.

On June 13, 1857 Thomas Hill and Joanna sold land at Big Creek to Thomas Flynt for $250. This deed was found in the Ellisville Court House, Book C. Page 64. Joanna Flynt Hill was Thomas Flynt's aunt.

Thomas Newton Flynt's sister Adeline married Henry Benton Shows. Henry never returned from the Civil War. The last any one heard from him was when Franklin Mac Flynt left the army to return home.

Henry Shows was in the hospital and begged Franklin, his brother-in-law, not to go home until he could be released from the hospital and go home, too.

This information was given to this compiler about 25 years ago by Mr. Willie Shows of Soso, Miss. who was in his eighties and very alert. He also said that Charity Keys, daughter of Joshua Keys, married Carter Mayfield. On her deathbed she asked her half-sister Adeline Flynt to take care of her children. Adeline Flynt took care of the children but she told Carter Mayfield she couldn't live in their house. A month after Charity died, Adeline Flynt married Carter Mayfield, Feb. 26, 1884. She married first time to Henry Benton Shows when she was about 19 years old. She married second time to Carter Mayfield when she was about 44 years old.

Mr. Willie Shows also said the Joshua Keys clock was in Franklin Flynt's home for sometime. Now it is in the possession of Winston Shows' parents, Mary and Arthur Shows.

Thomas Newton Flynt served in the Civil War in Company G, 7 Battalion, Mississippi Infantry (Confederate) as a private. He was enlisted Feb. 6, 1863 by A. M. Dozier in Ellisville, Miss. He was listed as "Thomas N. Flynt". This is the first document that refers to his middle name. (This compiler's mother gave his name as Thomas Newton Flynt.)

He was twenty-five years old when he enlisted in the army. He had three small children and one child "on the way".

Franklin Mac Flynt served as clerk of Big Creek Baptist Church, Jones Co., Miss. from Nov. 17, 1866 through Sept. 18, 1886 with the exception of one year, making a total of 19 years. Thomas Flynt followed his brother Franklin and served as clerk from 1886-1895, making a total of 9 years.

In his old age Thomas Flynt wore a long beard. His relatives called him "Pap". He lived up the road about a mile from his son Jefferson Davis Flynt. He moved there from Big Creek.

He died June 15, 1907 according to Big Creek Baptist Church records. He is buried in Big Creek Cemetery, Jones County, Mississippi.

JEFFERSON DAVIS FLYNT (1857-1938)

Jefferson Davis Flynt was born at Big Creek, Jones County, Mississippi on August 28, 1857 to Thomas Newton Flynt and Martha Ellen Pennel (Pinion). (Early records give Pennel; recent records give Pinion.) He was named for the president of the United States. Later he changed his initials to D. J. after his nephew J. Doyle Flynt came to live and work with him for several years. However, an early deed dated 1879 listed his name as David J. Flynt.

The 1870 census, Jones County, Miss. for Thomas Flynt gives his son "Jefferson D. Flynt-age 12". The census was taken before Jeff's birthday in August. When Jeff was about thirteen years old he went to live with his grandfather Richard Pennel (Pinion). He was told if he would help his grandfather farm, he would be given a farm and a horse. He lived there until he was eighteen years old. One source said he lived with the Pennels until he married.

According to census records Richard Pennel's son William was born in Jones Co., Miss. in 1836. The Pennels moved from South Carolina probably in 1835. They settled ½ mile west of Big Creek Baptist Church. Richard Pennel had a post office in his house so this community was called Pennelville. (Note: This compiler has two or three documents listing Pennelville as the location.)

Jefferson Davis Flynt lived at Pennelville or Big Creek, Jones Co., Miss. for several years. He married Easter Remillicent "Dolly" Shows and two of his sons were born at Big Creek.

In 1883 Jeff Flynt, his wife Dolly, sons Thomas Wade and Darling Jefferson moved several miles away to where Flynt Road is now. The road was named for Jefferson Davis Flynt and his sons who lived near him. He built a split log house about 1888 and later additions were made. He lived there until he died at the age of 81.

Jefferson Davis Flynt was a hard working man and a generous man who liked to share his vegetables and fruits with relatives and neighbors.

He had many talents and skills. He was a brick mason. He built the brick smoke stack at the old Cotton Mill, Laurel, Miss. He also built chimneys for people building homes. For a few years he worked for the railroad. Then he kept up lines for telephone poles. He would draw, print, and make signs.

Jeff Flynt was a land surveyor--surveying for free to all who called on him and they were many. He farmed some and sold produce to stores. He grew cotton for mattresses for the family. He had a cane mill. (Note: This compiler remembers the molasses he made was the best!)

He was a member of Hickory Grove Church, Laurel, Mississippi.

Jefferson Davis Flynt made a coffin for his mother Martha Ellen Pennel (Pinion) Flynt who died in 1910 at the age of 76. He used hard pine for the box and lined it with satin and lace. Jeff Flynt worked all night getting the casket made. He also made coffins for others.

People came to him for advice. Flynt Road was a public road so there was a lot of traffic. People would stop there on their way to Laurel.

Jefferson Davis Flynt bored the well at Powell School House located at Powell Springs. He also bored wells for people.

He and Dolly had three more children, namely: George Webster Flynt, Orange Reason Flynt and Minnie Millicent Flynt, making a total of five children. Dolly died May 7, 1899 after a bout of measles. She was 42 years of age.

Jefferson Davis Flynt married Marcella Pembena Wright September 2, 1903. They had four children, namely: Bertie May Flynt, Susan Lilian Flynt, Davis Austin Flynt and James Kimble Vardaman Flynt.

Theodore Gatlin (no relation) came to live with the Flynt family when he was seven years old. He stayed until he reached adulthood. He married Sybil Jones and had three children--Betty Louise, J. T. and Maudeline.

Several years before Jefferson Davis Flynt died his children and grandchildren celebrated his birthday every August with ice cream and cake. He died September 24, 1938 and was buried in Shows Cemetery. This cemetery is located west of Laurel, off highway 84 and beyond Tallahoma Creek. The marker on his grave has an error. Someone gave his name David Jefferson Flynt. It should be Jefferson Davis Flynt.

The data for this sketch was given by children of Jefferson Davis Flynt: Minnie Flynt Martin, the compiler's mother; Sue Flynt Bass, the compiler's aunt; and Wade Flynt, the compiler's uncle.

All sons had married before 1790 census except David. David married 1795.

All children except Richard, b. 1750, were listed in their father's estate papers. Richard died before the estate papers were made, according to researchers. The birthdates listed for these children are speculations made from records found on each individual. No definite birthdates have been found, with exception of William Flynt. His tombstone at Rural Hall, Flynt Cemetery reads: Born 23 March, 1762, Culpeper County, Virginia.

Some researchers think Richard Flynt's wife was Ann Fountain Perry and all children listed here are hers. National DAR, Washington, D.C. has approved Richard Flynt's war record and listed Ann Fountain as his second wife. Therefore, this compiler is naming her as Richard's second wife.

CERTIFICATE OF CEMETERY REMOVAL
OLD FLYNT GRAVEYARD

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
FORSYTH COUNTY

By agreement between the North Carolina State Highway Commission, party of the first part, and Vernon W. Flynt, party of the second part, the remains of certain persons interred in the Old Flynt Graveyard located on the west side of Old U.S. Highway #52 in village of Stanleyville, N.C. were removed for a connecting link between U.S. Highway #66 in Stanleyville, N.C. and new Highway #52 bypass two miles west of Stanleyville. The removal project was officially designated as N.C. 8.28231 in the N.C. State Highway Department records. The oldest grave in the plot was 173 years, and the most recent interment was in the year 1912. The site had been abandoned and neglected for many years.

By further agreement between the aforesaid parties, the remains contained in approximately 18 graves were carefully removed, placed in two coffins and then in two standard vaults and reinterred on the lands of Vernon W. Flynt adjoining graves in the old Fountain Flynt Graveyard on the west side of old U. S. Highway #52 approximately one mile north of the original location in Stanleyville. The entire cost of the removal, gravestones or markers and grass seeding the area of the new site, was borne by the North Carolina State Highway Department. The party of the second part, Vernon W. Flynt, received no remuneration in connection with this project.

The purpose of this removal certificate is to furnish an official record of the action and, also to identify insofar as possible the names, dates of birth and death and other pertinent data of the persons removed. Only two of the original gravestones were intact. On other graves, parts of stones with birth dates, death dates or names or both were discovered in or around the graves.

Additional data furnishing identification was provided from family history records of descendants of the deceased persons. Complete information from the original stones was available for William Flynt, a soldier in the American Revolution, and for Lieutenant-Colonel Proctor B. Flynt, North Carolina Militia officer, except the day of the birth of William Flynt could not be deciphered. The month and year were discernible. Part of the data for Richard Flynt and wife, Ann Fountain Flynt, and for Elizabeth Ballard Flynt, was found on pieces and fragments of other stones. Other dates for those latter persons from family records, wills and Revolutionary War records in Culpeper County, Virginia. The death dates (years only) of James Flynt and sister Elizabeth Flynt (unmarried) were known by Mrs. Evelyn Messick Hoagland of Oak Grove Plantation House, Bethania, N.C. All original stones, fragments of stones were reinterred with the other remains. Two large markers with all these data were placed at the new gravesites.

FLYNTS AMONG PIONEERS OF MONROE COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

The territory in present-day Monroe County, Mississippi that lies north of the old Gaines Trace Road and west of the Tombigbee River was ceded to the United States Government by the Chickasaw Indians by the Treaty of Pontotoc, which Treaty was initiated in 1832 and confirmed by the supplemental Articles of Agreement that were agreed upon and concluded in 1834. Thus, even though process emanating from the courts of Monroe County had been extended into the area by the Act of 1829, there was no legal ownership of land by private individuals in that part of present-day Monroe County that lies north of the old Gaines Trace Road and west of the Tombigbee River until after the year 1834.

Listed are Flynts who were among the original purchasers of the land in that part of the Choctaw District that lies within the presentday boundaries of Monroe County, Mississippi:

EARLY FLYNTS

Mr. R. C. W. Flynt, Alexandria, Virginia, who researched Flynts in early Virginia and in Scotland, wrote the following article:

Records show only two Flynts coming to the Colony of Virginia--Thomas Flynt, known as Lt. Thomas Flynt and later Capt. Thomas Flynt and his brother Richard Flynt.

They in partnership with Sir George Northby of Yorkshire brought immigrants to Virginia in ships Diana and later Temperance in return for signing over of 50 acres headright.

Thomas Flynt settled permantly in Elizabeth City County, Virginia in 1618. His younger brother, Richard, lawyer of Innertemple settled in Gloucester Co., Virginia in 1622. Thomas Flynt married Mary Fisk and owned the famous 1000 acre Shelburge Plantation. He became a member of Gov. Yardley's group and achieved prominence.

Thomas and Richard Flynt were sons of Bishop Richard Flynt, church of England. They, as was their father Bishop Flynt, were born in Ayton, Berwickshire, Scotland. Their grandfather John Flynt (Cambridge Class of 1555) was for 30 years lecturer of Church of Ayton (1555-1585).

Birthplace of John Flynt is not known. Greatest number of Flynts recorded is found at Matlock in Derbyshire, farthest S. E. penetration of Danes. Some possibility of Welsh origins. See Flintshire, N. Wales.

Why John Flynt, a Cambridge man, secured ecclesiastical preferment in Scotland can only be surmised. Ayton is nine miles north of Berwick-on-Tweed, but Berwick-on-Tweed has been English since the reign of Edward III and English-Scottish border is only four miles north of the city. John Flynt is shown in Festa Ecclesiae Scotticanae as "Priest of Diocese of St. Andrews".

About 1580 he was charged in Consistory Court with "improper administration of Holy Communion" (i.e. mixing water with wine). He was acquitted of charges. Bishop Richard Flynt is believed to belong to Cambridge class of 1580 (?). He apparently served also at Ayton, where Thomas and Richard Flynt were born, but went to England later, where James I (and VI) appointed him Bishop of Norwich.

Church served by John Flynt in Ayton still stands in ruins just behind "new" (1856) Church of Scotland edifice.

Ayton, except for ruined medieval churchyard and church, is mid 19th century. Beautiful 19th century village with Church of Scotland church built by the Granger family. Also has a great baronial castle (1850's) of the Liddell Granger family.

FLYNTS OF LANCASTER COUNTY, VIRGINIA

By Fred Eggleston

Richard Flynt, 1652. The Flynt name first occurs in the records of Lancaster County, Virginia, at the lower end of the "northern neck" on the north side of the Rappahannock River, in the first year after the county was organized. On November 29, 1652 Richard Flynt and William Wroughton obtained a patent for 200 acres on the Corotoman River in Lancaster (B. Fleet., Virginia Colonial Abstracts 22; 40, 103 (1944). Richard assigned his interest in the patent to Wroughton on November 23, 1653 (Ibid.)

Richard Flynt (before 1660-1720). A second Richard Flynt was of age living in Lancaster before January 29, 1676/7, when the first of certain lands and livestock already in this Richard's possession were assigned by Robert Pritchard and wife Frances to Robert's "son-in-law" Richard Flynt (Lancaster Deeds 4: 247,248; L. O. Duvall, Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Series II, 2:55 (1979). The term "son-in-law" at the time had both its modern meaning and the alternative meaning "stepson". On January 31, 1676/7 Richard Flynt and Robert Pritchard were among the signers of some instructions to the Lancaster members of the House of Burgesses (Journals of the House of Burgesses 1659/60-1693, p. 110).

By February 13, 1677/8 Richard Flynt had married Mary, daughter of John Sharp (Duvall 2: 83). It seems likely that Richard was Robert Pritchard's stepson, with Robert having married Richard's mother and raised him after his father's death. Robert's wife at the time of the gift, Frances, evidently was a widow with property held in her own right because she had patented land on Corotoman River in her own name on October 29, 1663, already having married Pritchard (Nugent 1: 506). While Richard Flynt is not mentioned in the will of either Frances (1680) or Robert Pritchard (1697), this may have reflected his already having received his share in the 1676/7 gifts (I. J. Lee, Abstracts of Lancaster County Wills, pp. 182-183). In 1701 Robert Pritchard's daughter Anne (by a later wife) chose Richard Flynt as her guardian (Orders 4: 154). If it is true that Robert Pritchard married Richard Flynt's mother, it is still unclear whether she was the Mary Flynt of the patent or Frances. It is also possible that the "son-in-law" reference comes from the Richard Flynt having been married briefly to a daughter of Robert Pritchard, before the marriage to Mary Sharp.

Richard Flynt appears regularly in the titheables lists for Lancaster County from the year 1676 (Duvall 2:91). He was a member of the horse company of the county militia on December 14, 1687 (Orders, 1686-1696, pp. 34-35). In 1680, 1685 and 1703 deeds, he was described as a taylor by trade (Deeds 4: 374; 6: 99: 30).

Mary Sharp, probably the first of his wives, was a daughter of John Sharp, who had settled in the area by June 26, 1651, before the county was organized (Fleet 22:87; Virginia Genealogist 20:112). He served as a constable in 1654 and died by May 6, 1662. (Fleet 22:87; Duvall 2:17). John had married by December 11, 1654, Eleanor Denham, a daughter of the widow Mary Denham, who was then married to Captain Thomas Hackett, Burgess for Lancaster in 1653 (Fleet 22: 48-49, 87; 1: 34; Stanard, The Colonial Virginia Register, p. 70). After John Sharp died, Eleanor also married again, by July 21, 1672, to Richard Price, who had served as constable in 1665 (Duvall 2: 24, 76, 83). Her will, dated June 9 and proved September 19, 1702, as recorded by the court clerk, names "sons Richard Flynt and David" and "daughter Phebe Flynt," among others (8: 111; Lee, p. 182). It appears she was referring to her son-in-law and two grandchildren.

Mary (Sharp) Flynt apparently died before April 6, 1683, for on that date William Lennell of Lancaster County mentioned in his will his daughter Christian Flint (Lee, p. 143, Wills 5: 88). Her mother was Jane widow of Arthur Clark (died by 1660) (Fleet 1: 66). The fact that Christian's name is not perpetuated in the Flynt family may raise doubt whether she was the mother of Richard Flynt's younger children, or whether she died and he took a third, unidentified wife. By July 4, 1704, and after October 31, 1702 by which time all of his children were already born, Richard Flynt married, as at least his third wife, Martha (Denham) Haynes, daughter of Robert Denham and widow of Edward Haynes, both of Lancaster County (Deeds 9: 108-110). She survived him and was living as late as November 7, 1723 (Deeds 11: 241).

Richard Flynt of St. Mary's White Chapel Parish, Lancaster County left a will dated April 18, 1715 and proved January 11, 1720/1, naming his "two eldest sons" David and Richard as executors (Lee, p. 86). He mentioned the following children, the two daughters already being married: David Alexander Flynt, Richard Flynt, Thomas Flynt, John Flynt, Phillis Flynt Nichols, and Rebecca Flynt Chilton.

Richard Flynt (1680s - 1752). Richard, the second son as shown by his father's will, was named as a residuary legatee with William, son of Thomas Barker, in the will of Thomas Martin in 1692, with his father Richard, Sr. named as executor along with Thomas Barker. No relation was stated (8: 36). Richard's father sold him two slave boys named Harry and Cesar and some cows on November 11, 1718 (Deeds 11: 99). Under the will made in 1715 his father had designated for Richard the slave boy Harry and livestock but not Cesar, who was to go to his brother John (10: 306). Richard purchased 100 acres on the Rappahannock River from Thomas Edwards in 1726 (Deeds 11:295).

Richard Flynt's wife in April 1731 was Elizabeth Reeves, a daughter of John Reeves of Lancaster County, a cooper, by his first wife Elizabeth (Lee, p. 186; Deeds 7: 163a). John and Elizabeth Reeves had married between May 9 and September 12, 1688, when she was the widow of William Clark (Lee, p. 53, Orders 3: 41; Wills 5: 124-5; 10: 264; Deeds 7: 163a). Elizabeth Reeves Sr. died after April 2, 1718, when she was mentioned in her son Arthur Clark's will (Lee, p. 53), John Reeves left a will dated April 10 and proved May 12, 1731, naming a wife Phebe and four children including Elizabeth Flynt wife of Richard (Lee, p. 186). How early Richard and Elizabeth Reeves married is not known, but it was after May 26, 1703, when William Brightman mentioned his god-daughter Elizabeth Reeves daughter of John Reeves and John's other children as his legatees (Lee, p. 26).

On September 5, 1731 Richard Flynt reassigned to Thomas Edwards a tract on the Rappahannock River in Lancaster which he had purchased from Edwards in 1726 (Deeds 12: 205; 11: 295). Shortly before, Richard had moved to adjacent Richmond County, where he bought 273 acres from Charles Bruce, part formerly held by William Barker, Jr., on June 1, 1731 (Richmond Deeds 8: 567). He purchased from William Carter 95 acres more in Richmond's Lunenburg Parish on the south side of the main branch of Charles' Beaverdam adjoining John Morton and William Barker in 1733 (Deeds 8:671). Richard and his son by the same name served as county surveyor of roads in the area of the Beaverdam and the old courthouse many times, as early as February 3, 1734 and as late as August 4, 1761 (Orders 10: 252, 322, 443; 11: 505; 12: 71; 14: 28, 432).

Elizabeth died, for sometime before April 26, 1743, but after January 27, 1740, Richard married Mary (Muse) Sanford Remy, daughter of John Muse Jr. (died c. 1723) and his wife Ann (died 1726) and widow of Robert Sanford (died 1738) and of John Remy (died 1740), all of Westmoreland County (W. L. Hopkins, Hopkins Family of Virginia, pp. 154-157; B. W. Rhamy, The Remy Family in America, pp. 317-318; Westmoreland Records & Inventories 1723-1746, p. 284a). In September 1742, probably as a settlement in anticipation of the marriage, Richard had deeded slaves to his four children, two of whom were still under age (Richmond Accounts 1: 183).

Richard Flynt was fined in court as a "common profane swearer" on November 7, 1748 (orders 12: 156, 167). His will was dated February 23 and proved July 6, 1752 in Richmond County (R. K. Headley, Wills of Richmond County, Va. 1699-1800, pp. 107-108). The widow Mary refused her legacy under the will and insisted on her dower rights under law (Orders 12: 369). Between April 2 and June 3, 1754, she took as her fourth husband Cyperus (Zeporus) Degge of Westmoreland and Gloucester Counties (Richmond Orders 13: 126, 168, 198; Westmoreland Deeds & Wills 14: 79, 81). She was widowed again by November 28, 1767, when she leased her dower lands in Richmond, and was still living on May 30 1771 (Richmond Deeds 12: 31; Westmoreland Records & Inventories 5: 168). The children of Richard Flynt were: John Flynt, Richard Flynt (1720-1792), Mary Ellen Flynt, David Flynt and William Flynt.

Richard Flynt (1720-1792) was of age by September 1742 when his father gave him a slave named Jemmy in his own right and (with brother John) others in trust for their minor brother David and sister Mary Ellen (Richmond Accounts 1: 183). Later his father's will gave him a slave Judea and another named Harry at the widow's death (Wills 5: 699). Richard married Ann Perry of Cople Parish, Westmoreland County. The date was shortly before September 29, 1747, when "Richard Flynt, Jr." filed suit as her husband against her grandfather guardian Richard Sanford to obtain her share of her father's estate, and received slaves name Sue and Boatswain (Westmoreland Records & Inventories 2: 41a; Orders 1747-1750, p. 38). Ann and her brothers Franklin and Roderick and her sister Catherine were the children of John Perry, a constable in Westmoreland in 1729, who left a will there dated March 27, 1738 and proved November 27, 1739 (Orders 1705-1721, p. 278; A. B. Fothergill, Wills & Administrations of Westmoreland County, Va. 1654-1800, p. 108). John was the only son of William Perry of Westmoreland, a taylor, whose wife was named Ann. His will was dated February 11, 1731/2 and proved January 21, 1738/9, mentioning his wife, son, daughter-in-law, and grandchildren Franklin, Ann, and Caty (Dorman, Westmoreland Order Book 1698-1705, Part 3, p. 87; Fothergill, p. 106).

The mother of Ann (Perry) Flynt was Susanna Sanford, a daughter of Richard and Susanna Sanford of Westmoreland. Before November 29, 1743 she married as her second husband Ziporus (Cyperus) Degge, but she died before January 31, 1743/4, after which Degge married Mary Muse, widow of Richard Flynt, Sr., as already mentioned (Westmoreland Orders 1743-1746/7, pp. 6, 11a). Susanna's father Richard Sanford survived her, giving a legacy in his will, dated July 25, 1757 and proved October 30, 1759, to his grandson Franklin Perry (Fothergill, p. 144).

From close family association and the names of Richard Sanford's son Edward Sanford and grandson Franklin Perry, both names newly introduced into the family, it appears that Richard Sanford's wife Susanna was a daughter of his late immediate neighbor Captain Edward Franklin. Captain Franklin, longtime Justice and twice Sheriff of Westmoreland County, acquired a total of 798 acres jointly with Robert Sanford, Sr. in two transactions (Westmoreland Orders 1675/6-1678/9, p. 85; Part 2, p. 31; Dorman Deeds & Patents 1665-1677, Part 2, p. 70; Northern Neck Grants 1: 203). Franklin was born about 1636 and died shortly before February 28, 1693/4, leaving a will recorded in a book which has been lost (Fleet 19:51; Dorman, Order Book 1690-1698, Part 3, p. 70). His wife Mary, widow of John Redman (died 1673) and a legatee of John Harris (died 1675), later married William Moxley (Mrs. J. B. Boddie, Historical Southern Families 12: 36-38). Captain Franklin's sometime partner Robert Sanford, Sr., who was the father of Richard Sanford, died shortly before April 24, 1700 leaving a widow named Ann and a lost will witnessed by William Moxley (Westmoreland Deeds 9: 264; Dorman, Order Book 1698-1705, Part 2, p. 15).

"Richard Flynt Jr." (1720-1792) was designated as an executor for his brother-in-law John Muse in Westmoreland County on January 23, 1750/1 (11: 280). As co-executor with his brother John, he was sued by his stepmother Mary on behalf of his minor brother William on April 2, 1754 (Richmond Orders 13: 126). He and John soon sued Mary and her husband Degge for mistreating William, and Richard was named to replace Mary as guardian for William and his property (Orders 13: 168, 198). Richard Flynt witnessed the will of Thomas Lyne in 1762 and served as bondsman for Lyne's daughter's marriage in 1760 (Headley, p. 131 G. H. S. King, Marriages of Richmond County, Va., p. 184). A generation earlier, the Lynes had been associated with and perhaps related to the Reeves family in Lancaster (Lancaster Deeds 13:113, Lee, pp. 53, 146).

On February 21, 1764 Richard mortgaged slaves named Harry, Jemmy, Boatswain, and Judah (Richmond Deeds 12: 536). Not long thereafter Richard Flynt joined his brother John in Culpeper County, where on May 14, 1767 he and his brother-in-law Roderick Perry witnessed a deed (Dorman, Culpeper County Deeds Volume 4, 1765-1769, p. 45). In the tax lists and in the boundary description of a deed he appears as "Richard Flynt, Sr." to distinguish him from "Richard Flynt, Jr.," the eldest son of his older brother John. The elder Richard may be the one who purchased a 200-acre tract from Jonathan Pratt in 1775 and had sold it or part of it in an unrecorded deed to William Dempsey before April 17, 1780, when it was mentioned in a later deed involving Richard, Jr. (Culpeper Deeds H: 55; K: 115). In the personal property tax list for 1782, Richard, Sr. held six slaves: Juder, Grace, Mima, Charles, Tab, and Jacob, all but one of whom remained in his possession at his death. He last appeared in the Culpeper tax list of 1785, moved to Surry County, N.C., and was taxed there in 1786. He left a will which was produced in court, proved by oaths of witnesses, and ordered recorded in Stokes County on September 3, 1792 (Minute Book, unpagged). While the clerk apparently failed to record the will as directed., Richard's estate file shows the distribution of his property to 10 children or their husbands as legatees under the will. All but one of the slaves in his inventory bore the same names as those in his 1782 tax list in Culpeper. The widow Ann died shortly before January 25, 1797, when Thomas Johnston acted as her administrator (Stokes estate file, Richard Flynt, 1792). Judging from factors such as age and close family association, Richard and Ann apparently had a least one son Richard who died before them in addition to the 10 surviving children:

John Flynt (c. 1748-1821) of Culpeper and of Stokes County, N.C. (wife Catherine) (Culpeper Personal Property Tax 1783-1787: Stokes loose wills and estate papers).

Richard Flynt (c. 1750-1778) of Albemarle County, Va. (wife Sally Martin) (Albemarle Wills 2:369; Deeds 7: 204; Virginia Genealogist 16: 96).

Thomas Flynt (1750s-1825) of Albemarle and Stokes County, N. C. (wife Sally Martin, widow of Richard Flynt) (Albemarle marriage bonds 1782, signature matching those in Stokes: Virginia Genealogist 16: 96; Stokes Wills 3: 127).

Smith says letter writing under his name was forged

CORINTH, Miss. (AP)—State Sen. Theodore Smith says that a letter written by another Corinth legislator under his name was "a forgery" and the matter has been turned over to authorities.

Smith declined to say Wednesday whether he planned to bring a personal suit against state Rep. John C. Ross Jr., who admitted writing six letters using Smith's name.

Smith said "the matter is in the hands of the U.S. Postal Service and the FBI....The whole letter was a forgery and was sent through the mails. It certainly is a violation of the law to send fraudulent correspondence through the postal service."

Spokesmen for the postal service and the FBI said, however, that they knew of no active investigations by their agencies.

M.J. Faith, a postal service inspector at Tupelo, said it under investigation bearing been referred to the office.
